NO CHANGE

In the Controversy Between Campbell and Hawkins.

Austin, Texas, June 14.—There was no change today in the status of the Campbell-Hawkins controversy. The governor had nothing to add to his statement of last night answering the letter in which Commissioner Hawkins declined to resign, and Mr. Hawkins said he had nothing to say in reply to the governor's statement.
There the matter rests, and there were no developments whatever today, so far as the principals in the drama are concerned.

The governor's "impression" that Mr. Hawkins' term of office expires on August 21 next instead of in January has been the principal topic of conversation today. Inasmuch as both of the belligerents appear to have settled down for a siege to the end, the speculation now is to when will the end appear. Everybody thought it would be in January when the administration relinquishes the reins of government, but the governor's impression has caused the talk.
The governor based his impression on the fact that the law under which the department was created became effective on August 21, 1876; therefore, the two year term commenced and ended on the recurrence of August 21.
Mr. Hawkins will not discuss the matter, but appears satisfied.
